

KOSMOS PUBLISHING

(an imprint of Attica Editions Inc.) Internet Linked

Savings of up to 40% off bookstores' prices. Compare these prices before you shop

Prices shown are already discounted. Ship via UPS, Media Mail or Priority Mail. Shipping fees are not included.

English Translations of Greek Literary Works

Angelic & Black

Contemporary Greek Short Stories

translated by David Connolly

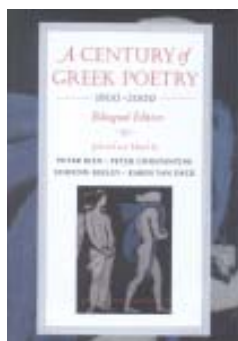

Introduction by Vangelis Hatzivassileiou. The 34 authors presented in this anthology are representative of contemporary Greek literature, from 1970 to today, in some of its most fundamental and characteristic trends. 264 pgs, 140x210, SC

$19.95 A Century of Greek Poetry

1900-2000, Bilingual Edition

edited by P. Bien, P. Constantine, E. Keeley and K. Van Dyck

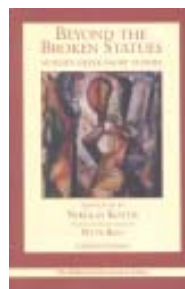

This bilingual anthology presents the achievements of Greek poetry in the 20th century. Included are 109 poets, two of them Nobel prize winners, and 456 poems, with the Greek original and the English translation on

$49.95 Beyond the Broken

Statues: Modern Greek Short Stories

translated by Nicholas Kostis

Introduction by P. Bien. This anthology presents a collection of authors who illustrate the development of modern Greek writing in Greece from 1850 to 1950. 285 pgs, 140x210, SC

Penelope's Confession

$13.95

Bilingual Edition, by Gail Holst-Warhaft

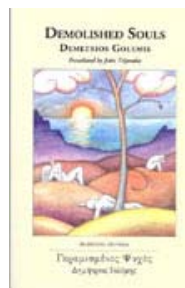

Poetry. Hers is a unique voice, a subtle meld of the lyrical and reflective, each reinforcing the other, leaving an impression that it does not evaporate with the reading. 109 pgs, 140x210, SC opposite pages. Many of the poems and the translations are published for the first time. Also, included are Kimon Friar's unpublished corrections/modifications to his original translations. The poets that appear in this anthology bring to light a splendid achievement of modern European literature and will underline its continued vitality and originality. 1039 pgs, 170x240, HC with Dust Jacket

Demolished Souls

$12.95

Bilingual Edition, by Demetrios Golemis

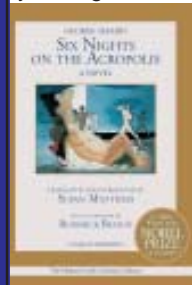

Poetry. Translated by John Tripoulas. An important member of the modern Greek literary renaissance was Demetrios Golemis, an Olympic athlete, eminent doctor but more importantly a poet. 111 pgs, 140x210, SC

Six Nights on the Acropolis

$18.95

by George Seferis, transl. by S. Matthias

Winner of the 2006 Constantinides Memorial Translation Prize from the Modern Greek Studies Ass. One man. Two women. A group of free-thinking friends. Sex. Poetry. Mysticism. At once a tragic love story and a tale of artistic maturation. 213 pgs, 140x210, SC

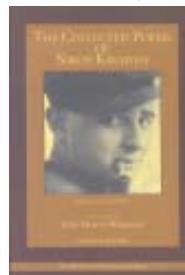

Available through the publisher at:
Tel: 201-664-3494
Fax: 201-664-3402
E-mail: orders@greeceinprint.com
www.Amazon.com
www.GreeceInPrint.com
or your local bookstore
Our associates can obtain any book published in Greece or in the USA.

The Collected Poems of

$17.95

Nikos Kavadias, Bilingual Edition

translated by Gail Holst-Warhaft

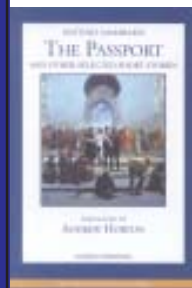

Kavadias spent his life sailing world-wide and writing poems about monsoons, masts snapping and dream-girls. Scrupulously translated, these poems will tell landlubbers a lot about life on the wine dark sea. 238 pgs, 140x210, SC

The Passport and Other Selected Short Stories

$13.95

by Antonis Samarakis, transl. by A. Horton

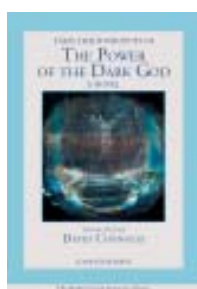

Samarakis is modern Greece's most widely translated writer after Kazantzakis. This collection brings together eight of his finest stories including The Last Participation, Mama, The Knife, and The Passport. 110 pgs, 140x210, SC

The Power of the Dark God

$16.95

by T. Theodoropoulos, transl. by D. Connolly

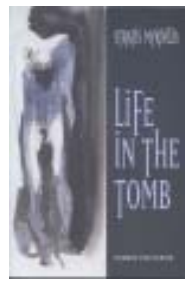

With the pacing of a thriller, the author weaves the threads of a story in which the impasse of human relationships is depicted and the present turns out to be a dream in the distant past. Love, death, and creation are dealt with in an original way. 160 pgs, 140x210, SC

Life in the Tomb

$18.95

by Stratis Myrivilis, translated by Peter Bien, Introduction by S. Vryonis, Jr

A war novel written by a sergeant in the trenches of World War I. It has been the single most successful and widely read serious work of fiction in Greece since its publication in 1926. 250 pgs, 140x210, SC

Greek Diaspora Writers

Aisha $14.95
by A. Catramantou-Parker

A novel of survival, it is woven with historical events, romance and passion. A shrewd peasant girl escapes her poverty-stricken village to rise as one of the most celebrated dancers of her time.
276 pgs, 140x210, SC

Austin Lunch $19.95
by Constance Constant

This memoir chronicles the story of a family living through the shock of immigration and the struggles of the Great Depression. Mama defies convention in 1931 and goes to work in her husband's restaurant.
445 pgs, 140x210, SC

Hellenika: Heritage and History $18.95
by T. Peter Limber

An innovative presentation of the history of the Greeks, from prehistoric times to today, an admirable people with unmatched culture and civilization. Full color maps define their influence to the world.
267 pgs, 170x240, SC

George Seferis The Strong Wind From the East $12.95
by Markos Madias

The ambition and purpose of this book is to examine some ideas of Eastern religions that have influenced Seferis as well as many other writers in the last two hundred years.
190 pgs, 140x210 mm, SC

Greek Unorthodox and A Farewell to Ikaros $19.95
by Elizabeth Boleman Herring

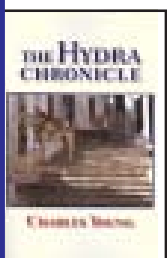

Essential reading not only for students of contemporary Greek culture but for all who can learn from an honest and wise sensibility artfully rendered.
384 pgs, 140x210 mm, SC

The Bellmaker's House $29.95
by Theodore Pitsios

Nikos returns from America to his village in Greece, only to discover he lacked the important elements of success. He conceives a scheme to remedy that situation and upon his return to America he sets forth to carry out his plan.
256 pgs, 170x250, HC

The Hydra Chronicle $18.95
by Charles Young

Philip goes to the Greek island of Hydra in search of the last major Nazi. On Hydra, through the annual almond and olive harvests, he is introduced to the culture and history of the island which aids him in his goal

391 pgs, 140x210, SC

The First Victory Greece in the Second World War $31.95
by George Blytas

From the events leading to World War II, the book unfolds through the diplomatic and military developments of the battle of Greece. The resistance, which emerged during the occupation at a staggering cost to the Greek nation, completes the saga.

600 pgs, 170x240 mm, HC

The Self in New York $50.00
by Artemis Schwebel

Using monumental mythological, historic and contemporary themes interpreted in his accomplished and distinctive style of painting and drawing, Schwebel has produced an authentic, poetic and extraordinary volume that captures our attention and imagination.
240 pgs, 170x240, SC

Theodorakis: Myth and Politics $12.95
by Gail Holst

To the Greeks Theodorakis is already a legendary figure. He has been imprisoned and tortured for his political beliefs, his music had been banned by right-wing governments.
280 pgs, 155x230, SC

Vignettes of Modern Greece 18.95
by Melissa Orme-Marmarelis

These vignettes describe the idiosyncracies and charm of modern Greek culture through the eyes of an American woman married to a Greek man. Vividly illustrated and often amusing.
296 pgs, 140x210, SC

You Can Realize Your Dream $8.95
by Alkistis Agio

A treasure of wise and practical quotes from the ancient Greek philosophers that will motivate and empower us to follow through our unique life purpose and turn it into reality.
100 pgs, 140x210, SC

Let Us Learn Greek Preschool $13.95
by Anastasia Nannas

Greek as a second language for preschool and kindergarden pupils, taught through the use and comprehension of pictures. Greek words are also presented in phonetic English form.

134 pgs, 215x2750, SC

Let Us Learn Greek Book One $12.95
by Anastasia Nannas

Greek as a second language for kindergarden and first grade pupils, taught through the use and comprehension of pictures. Greek words are also presented in phonetic English form.

94 pgs, 215x2750, SC

Let Us Learn Greek Book Two $12.95
by Anastasia Nannas

Greek as a second language for first and second grade pupils, taught through the use and comprehension of pictures. Greek words are also presented in phonetic English form.

94 pgs, 215x2750, SC