

Brought to you by GSAS Housing's Environmental Liaison, Dudley House Public Service & Harvard SEAS' Environmental Science and Engineering
 Contact Hannah Lee, GSAS Resident Advisor, at hannah@seas.harvard.edu w/q's

2012 EARTH WEEK FILM SERIES

THURSDAYS
7:30 - 9:00 PM
+ Snacks

Dudley 3rd Floor

March 29 | April 5 | April 12 | April 26

ABOUT:

WHEN THE WATER ENDS (short):

water and conflict in East Africa.

GARBAGE DREAMS: follows three teenage boys born into the trash trade and growing up in the world's largest garbage village, on the outskirts of Cairo, Egypt.

BAG IT: an incredible investigation into plastics and their effect on our waterways, oceans, and bodies.

PIPE DREAMS (short):

today's contested tar sands project: The Keystone XL pipeline.

WARRIORS OF QIUGANG (short):

villagers in central China take on a chemical company.

WASTE LAND: you and the artist Vik Muniz, go from Brooklyn to Brazil and the world's largest garbage dump, on the outskirts of Rio de Janeiro.